

Do now...

Which of these are British values?

Say what you want, when you want
Respect for laws and rules in England
Agree with what you are told

Promote Christianity

Mutual respect for those who have different beliefs

Support for democracy

Understanding of different cultures in Britain

Make the most of life

Being nice

Have freedom of choice

Answers

Which of these are a British value?

Say what you want, when you want

Respect for laws and rules in England

Agree with what you are told

Promote Christianity

Mutual respect for those who have different beliefs

Support for democracy

Understanding of different cultures in Britain

Make the most of life

Being nice

Have freedom of choice

Mutual Respect and the Golden Rule

LO: To explain the importance of mutual respect in society

Extremism

Beliefs that are very different from ordinary beliefs

Exclusivist, meaning it is only for a certain group or people who share those precise beliefs

A deep sense of belonging to a group that shares the same extremist beliefs

Can lead to violence or aggression

Can believe that there is someone or something to blame for their misfortune

Might involve a sense of being let down by society

Extremists - Watch this clip

The far right extremist

Their extremist views are...

Some of the reasons they give for having these views are...

The Muslim extremist

Their extremist views are...

Some of the reasons they give for having these views are...

How did the level of mutual respect change over the conversation?

What can we learn from this about how mutual respect can be improved in a community?

'Treat others as you would like to be treated'

This is known as the Golden Rule and is present in all main belief systems, including:

- Buddhism
- Christianity
- Hinduism
- Humanism (atheist belief system)
- Islam
- Judaism
- Sikhism

It is also fundamental to many of our laws in Britain!

There are some situations in society that are caused by a lack of mutual respect

Mutual respect - what would you do?

Task:

Write a scenario that involves a character having to make a choice on what the right thing is to do.

End it with "What would you do?"

Quiz-Quiz-Share

1. Stand up
2. Pair up
3. Read out your scenario and ask them the question "What would you do?"
4. Your partner has to respond by applying the Golden Rule "Because we need to treat others the way we want to be treated, I would..."
5. Your partner then reads their scenario, asks you their question and you answer in the same way
6. Then you must swap scenarios and find a new partner with your new scenario

Reflection

- Which scenario made you think the most?
- How important is the Golden Rule?
- Is it always easy to do the right thing in our daily lives?

What are the challenges or barriers that stop some people from showing the mutual respect that they should?

LO: To explain the importance of mutual respect

Draw around your hand and record five reasons why mutual respect is important.

Pause and share.

Now complete your reasons

